This OF is submitted in accordance with and governed by the Terms and Conditions as published at https://seacom.co.ke/terms-and-conditions ("Agreement") and the Acceptable Use Policy as published at https://seacom.co.ke/legal-acceptable-use-policy ("AUP"). The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the foregoing Agreement is hereby specifically incorporated by reference into this OF and, upon Provider's acceptance of this OF (in accordance with the Agreement and AUP), shall (together with this OF) constitute a valid and binding contract between the Customer and the Provider. By signing this OF, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that it is familiar with the Agreement & AUP and agrees to be bound by them. In no event shall Provider be liable to the Customer with respect to this Service described herein or any matter relating thereto (including the failure to provide any such Services) under any contract, negligence, strict liability or other legal equitable theory (other than fraud) during the term of this OF, except as provided for in the Agreement. The Customer acknowledges that the Service is provided on an "AS IS" basis. Terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement.

OF FEASIBILITY

The Provider, should it accept this OF, shall do so; (i) on the basis of the information provided; (ii) the assumption that the Customer has obtained all requisite approvals and (iii) that the provision of the Services is commercially feasible for the Provider. Should the Provider, in its sole and absolute discretion, determine that, prior to the Service Commencement Date, the prevailing assumptions or pertinent information have substantially changed or have been omitted, the Provider shall be entitled, in its sole and absolute discretion, without limiting or derogating from any of its rights under the Agreement or at law, to: (i) propose an amendment to the Service Charges (the "Revised OF"); or (ii) immediately terminate the OF without liability to the Customer. Should the Customer fail to accept the Revised OF in writing within five (5) days following its receipt of the Revised OF from the Provider, the OF shall be deemed terminated with no further obligations. Should the Customer accept the Revised OF by signing and returning it to the Provider, the Revised OF shall be binding with effect from the date on which the Customer signs the Revised OF and the Parties schedule a Service "kick-off" call to discuss the commencement of the Services.

CANCELLATION CLAUSE

The OF shall commence as of the Service Commencement Date and shall continue for the duration of the Term. If the Term expires this OF shall automatically renew for three (3) months at a time (each a "Renewal Term") unless either Party notifies the other Party in writing that it desires to terminate this OF at least one (1) calendar month in advance of the expiration of the initial Term or on three (3) calendar month's written notice at any time during any Renewal Term.
